BEFORE and AFTER the CROSS WORKSHEET

BEFORE and AFTER the CROSS WORKSHEET

Studying and understanding all that is true of you as a Christian — because of the work of Christ — is one of the most important themes of the Bible you can study. As you begin to read through Scripture looking for them, you will see hundreds of truths about who you are "in Christ" jump off the page.

Below is an example — a cheat sheet — to show how you can use this worksheet. Truths shown are from Ephesians 2:12-17.

A stranger to the covenants of

Separated from God by a promise (v. 12)

Without hope (v. 12) Without God (v. 12)

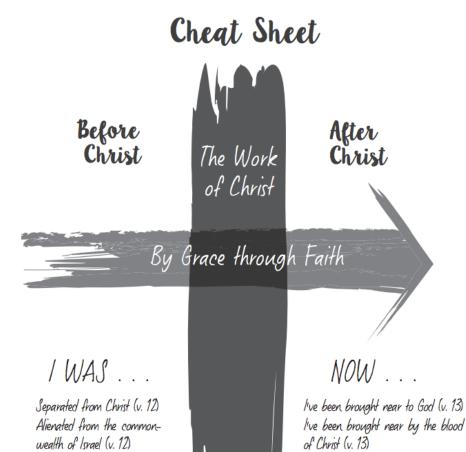

Far off (w. 13, 17)

wall of hostility (v. 14)

Not sure where to find truths of who you are in Christ?

Here are a few places to start:

- Ephesians 1:3-14
- Ephesians 2
- Colossians 2:12-14; 3:1-4
- Titus 3:2-7
- 1 Peter 1:3-5
- Romans 8:1-4

Jesus has broken down the dividing wall of hostility (v. 14)
Jesus has caused peace (v. 15)
I have been reconciled to God through the Cross of Christ (v. 16)
The hostility between God and me has been killed (v. 16)
Peace has been preached to me through Christ (v. 17)

Jesus has made me one with God

Jesus is my peace (v. 14)
